

1/18/17

Invocation: Matt Baker

God Bless America was sang by club members and accompanied on the piano by Pat Davis

Guests: Bob Borzok was a guest of Terry Babb

Apryl Devenport was a guest of her husband, Craig

Earl and Mary Lou Kinter and Keith and Amy Goerhring were guests that accepted our Open invitation after reading about our program in the Wellsboro Gazette.

John Swanson introduced the program presenter Jane Hilfiger from Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hospital. She presented information on the partnership with University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) that is currently underway. Jane started out as a nurse at SSMH and is now the President.

UPMC officially became on board October 8, 2016 after a 2-year search for a suitable partner, who can offer the services that were not offered at SSMH.

Programs that are looking to expanded or added are:

ER and Trauma

Neuro Science (2-3 new surgeons)

Neonatal

Cancer/ Surgical Oncology

Heart and Vascular

Spine

SSMH is currently recruiting for ER doctors and Surgeons. They are hoping that residency rotations from other areas with spark some interest to our rural area.

Jane explained the Tele-health program that is currently in place. The service provides online interaction with specialists at the foot of a patient's bed.

Other topics covered were:

-Info on the Cancer Treatment Center that has many services available, but some services require a trip to Williamsport.

-Statistics on patient and services provided

-New canopy at SSMH Cancer Center

-New facilities in Mansfield

-Sports medicine program and other clinics

-Green Home has a new transportation bay

Jane finished up by asking club member questions.
