Thursday November 1, 2018

PROGRAM:

President Cindy introduced our very own Richard Black as our speaker today. Richard and his wife went on an incredible cruise to Antarctica in January of this year. From glaciers and iceberg's to penguin's, seals and whales, Richard shared a slide presentation of spectacular photos documenting their trip. Thank you for sharing!

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

In an effort to improve communication, we are trying to update the member information on our club website. Please check to see if your information is correct and if not please forward the correct info to Bill Yacovissi or Dawn Bowser.

Sign up for the annual children's Christmas party has begun. If you haven't already, please let Teri Carson know if you will be there or not.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

There are only a few spots left needing volunteers to man the Rifle Raffle table at the bear check station. Saturday November 17, 10-12 and 12-3 and Wednesday November 21, 11-2 and 2-5. If you are able to help fill those spots please let Jim Tutak know.

This months 50/50 recipient will be Asa's House. Asa's House is a residential recovery facility in Wellsboro serving infants born addicted to drugs and abused or neglected children in the court system.

In light of recent events, the Council of Churches is sponsoring a seminar for security in houses of worship Saturday November 17th that is open to the public. Jim Tutak will be forwarding detailed information to all members.

Pauline is moving today to her next host family, thank you again to Dave Tews and his family for hosting Pauline!

As discussed at the board meeting, the club is hoping to coordinate with other clubs in our district to help sponsor a disaster relief shelter box. These boxes include everything from a tent to cooking utensils for a large family to stay warm and comfortable during a natural disaster. The club is also looking into how we can help collaborate efforts with the Hamilton Gibson students choir on upcoming events.
